MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Additional GS-9 SF Position in the Africa Division

25X1A

1. [REDACTED] Administrative Officer of the Africa Division, in an interview today, stated that a new SF position grade GS-9 in the Budget and Finance Section of the Africa Division had been approved by [REDACTED] Office and the Office of the DD/P and that a request had been made of the Salary and Wage Division of the Personnel Office to classify the position at the GS-9 level. He said that he was giving the undersigned advance notice so that we would have a person available for transfer when the position was approved by the Salary and Wage Division. He further stated that he would like to have a person qualified in travel work and with a general knowledge of finance operations.

2. [REDACTED] reported that considerable consideration had been given to the establishment of a [REDACTED] operation covering the [REDACTED] overseas field offices but that for the time being no further action would be taken as it was his considered opinion as well as others that all problems could be better handled from Headquarters by sending qualified finance personnel to the area on a TDY basis. He gave as an illustration, the proposed trip of [REDACTED] to the area.
